Seasonal Treats!

Local Breast Cancer Patient Support

It has been our privilege to work with a local nonprofit with a close connection to Longmont Dairy. Amy Willard, our former long-time Office Manager, lost her stepmom, Roberta Lozinski, to breast cancer and started Roberta's Legacy in her honor to help and support local breast cancer patients and their families.

Roberta lived her whole life in Longmont, Colorado, and Roberta's Legacy still calls this community home. Their mission is to walk beside those diagnosed with breast cancer and their families in Longmont, Colorado, providing care, resources, and services through a network of legacy friends and partners.

Help us support Roberta's Legacy and their work in the community again this year. During the month of October, we will donate 50¢ to Roberta's Legacy for each bottle of Strawberry Milk delivered. Add one to your order this month or go to RobertasLegacy.org to find other ways to get involved.

Dear Friends,

One of my favorite things to do in the fall is to take my kids to the Pumpkin Patch. Over the years, we have found many that we love; Rocky Mountain Pumpkin Patch in Longmont, Anderson Farms in Erie, and Osborn Farm in Loveland to name a few.

The Pumpkin Patch that I feel has the best story and has many fun activities is the Harvest Farm in Wellington. This is a farm run by one of my favorite nonprofits, The Denver Rescue Mission. Their 100-acre farm allows many individuals that are coming out of addiction and homelessness to find unique work therapy and a fresh start in a safe and rural environment.

Not only is this a farm that serves a great cause, but also offers family fun.

Take care,

Katie

MOOO RECIPES

Autumn Ice Cream Sandwiches

Here is an easy way to use seasonal cookie dough to enjoy the fantastic flavors of Fall. With a few cute decorations they also make fun Halloween treats for kids of all ages. Makes 18 ice cream sandwiches.

- 1 3-pound tub Mary's Mountain Pumpkin Chocolate Chip Cookie Dough
- ½ gallon vanilla ice cream (or experiment with other flavors!)
- 2-3 c. mini chocolate chips or Halloween Candy Eyeballs (optional)

Preheat oven to 350°F. Line a large baking sheet with parchment paper and set aside.

Scoop 1½ tablespoons cookie dough, placing about 2 inches apart, onto prepared cookie sheet. Bake 10-12 minutes, or until slightly golden and just set on the top. You should end up with 36 baked individual cookies.

Allow baked cookies to cool on the baking sheet for 2-3 minutes then transfer to a baking rack to cool completely.

Once cooled completely, flip cookies upside down so bottom is facing up. Scoop ¼-½ cup of the ice cream on top of one cookie. Place another cookie bottom-down on top of the scoop of ice cream and press down gently to make a sandwich. If desired, cover exposed ice cream with mini chocolate chips or Halloween Candy eyes. Repeat with all baked cookies.

Make ahead tip: wrap each ice cream sandwich individually in foil and place in the freezer for up to 3 months.
