Dear Friends,

As a mom, I feel like the school year just started, and here we are approaching Spring Break already. I'm trying to think of some activities to do with my kids. One of my favorite activities my mom and I would do when I was a kid was make homemade applesauce. The scent of the warm apples and cinnamon filling the house made it feel so warm and cozy. Even to this day, when my mom makes applesauce for Christmas or other events, I get so excited like a little kid.

If you want some fun recipes to make with your kids over Spring Break or to make with a family or friend, visit moorecipes.com. We've accumulated quite a few recipes over the years from family members, customers, vendors, etc. We hope you can make fun memories in the kitchen with your loved ones!!

Happy Spring!!!

Katie

They Keep the Milk Coming!

Our amazing fleet team is essential to ensuring reliable deliveries that you can count on week after week. They keep the trucks rolling.

Bobby, Shanon and Tim replace brake pads, tires, headlights, windshield wipers and change the oil on 43 trucks (called step-vans). Their primary objective is to maintain the fleet in top working order so that the drivers have a safe and reliable vehicle, and can deliver, on time, to your doorstep.

Bobby Rangel, a Longmont native, has 20 years of experience maintaining heavy duty equipment. He has been married for 37 years and has been with us for about two years.

Shanon Inman, the Fleet Manager, has twenty years of managerial experience and has been with us for two years. He lives in Longmont with his wife and 6-year-old daughter.

Tim Van Haaren has been with Longmont Dairy for almost a year and has eight years of experience as an A.S.E. certified master technician. He has volunteered as a search and rescue medic for over six years.

One of the biggest department challenges they face is the variety of issues and repairs they make. There is constant diversity ranging from simple preventative maintenance to complex trouble shooting. There is never a dull moment.

"Snow presents unique challenges for us," states Shanon. "It can accumulate under the trucks and dumps right on our faces." Shanon calls that "fun!"

A big thank you to our Fleet Team! You are key to delivering our farm-fresh milk.
