JULY

Celebrate with Ice Cream!

July is National Ice Cream Month

Stay cool this summer (and celebrate National Ice Cream Month) with our yummy ice cream recipes! There's a fun milkshake idea on the back page and a lot more ice cream recipes on MooRecipes.com. We even have simple directions for making homemade ice cream right inside of our recipes.

Get Ready for the Annual Eggnog Holiday Bottle Design Contest!

The 2015 Annual Eggnog Bottle Design Contest theme will be Longmont Dairy's Classic Christmas. Send us your best vintage design to help us celebrate 50 years and your drawing could be featured on thousands of our 2015 Holiday Eggnog quart bottles. The drawing template will be in the August issue of the Moo News and is now available on our website at http://longmontdairy.com/bottle_contest_entry.php

Dear Friends,

Summer is in full swing now and so are some of our favorite seasonal treats. Nothing beats homemade ice cream on a hot day (or any day for that matter). Summer produce like raspberries, strawberries or peaches make a wonderful addition to fresh ice cream. No wonder July is National Ice Cream Month!

Hope you have tried our delicious lemonade and raspberry lemonade. It makes great ice cubes, and is even better if you add a few berries when freezing. I have even wondered about adding fresh herbs, like mint or lavender, just for fun. Lemonade cubes with sparkling water would make a refreshing drink at your 4th of July BBQ.

Enjoy your summer, and take some time to smell the roses!

Take care till next time,

Susan

Grandpa's Famous Chocolate Milkshake

This recipe is so easy it is ridiculous!

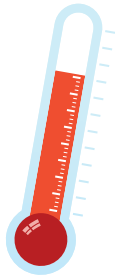

Take chocolate ice cream and fill a blender about half way. Add Longmont Dairy chocolate milk until it covers about 1/3 of the ice cream.

Use the "pulse" setting on the blender (turning the mixer on and off). Mix until you achieve the desired consistency (Grandpa likes thinner, uneven blending, but if you like smoother shakes you can mix until the texture is consistent and well blended).

P.S. Actually, this recipe is only famous among Grandpa's grandchildren. It's always a hit, but they will like it even better if you tell them it's famous!

Warm Weather Tips

July is usually the hottest month of the year along the Front Range. Follow these tips for keeping your dairy products from spoiling in the heat.

- Place your porch milk box where the driver can see it but where it will be shaded from the early morning sunlight.
- Refrigerate the milk as soon as possible.
- Rinse out your porch box on a regular basis so it does not smell.
- Keep milk out of the light. Sunlight destroys vitamins.
- Set your refrigerator to 35-40° F.
