SEPTEMBER

Welcome Fall!

Fall Is Here

Aspen leaves will soon be quaking with gold in the higher elevations and most of us are enjoying the fall sports season.

Our favorite fall seasonal products have returned to spice up family meals just in time for Labor Day picnics!

Chilled or warm, Talbott's Apple Cider offers that fresh pressed flavor that reminds us of the apples you pick from the local orchards this time of year.

Cinnamon Eggnog is back, as tasty as ever. It's rich and spicy and worthy of the title "dessert in a bottle." Try it in the Eggnog French Toast recipe on MooRecipes.com

The cool evenings just beg you to fill the kitchen with the smell of fresh baked cookies, and Mary's Mountain Cookie Dough makes that task so easy. With school back in session and lunch boxes to fill, we have traditional Chocolate Chip and have added seasonal favorites, Pumpkin Chocolate Chip and Monster Cookie Dough.

Tillamook's Four Year Aged Extra Sharp Cheddar Cheese was a holiday favorite last year, so we decided to bring it back early for the 2015 holiday season. Serve with crackers for barbecues and parties.

Dear Friends,

This time of year is BUSY with birthdays for our family and friends! What a great time to celebrate outdoors with warm days, blue skies, and wonderful fresh produce from our gardens and farmers' markets.

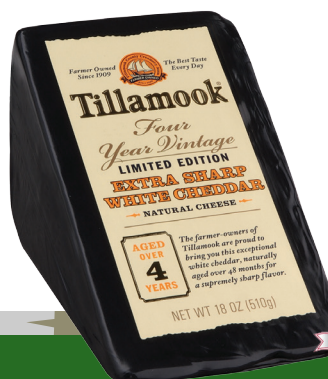

One of my favorite birthday memories was spending the day in Estes Park with our grand kids and kids. We spent the day racing go carts, squirting each other on the boat ride, water balloon fights and lots of yummy food. So much fun!

My other favorite birthday tradition with our "Work Family" is the Colorado Proud Birthday Potluck Feast. We share tomatoes, cucumber and onion salad, coleslaw, potato salad, watermelon and the grand finale, Peach Cobbler. Yum!!

Whatever you are celebrating in September, please enjoy the best days of Colorado Proud.

Take care till next time,

Susan
