Meet Noah Warden

2026 Eggnog Bottle Design Contest Winner

Noah is 17 years old and was born in Lafayette. He has a 15-year-old brother, Luke, and many beloved pets, including his service dog, Toby, turtle Stuie, seven rabbits, and four chickens!

Music is his favorite subject in school. Although he is non-verbal, he always has sounds to make, and music gives him a meaningful way to express himself. Art is also a very important part of his life and his number one sensory activity. He has entered the Longmont Dairy Eggnog Bottle Design Contest several times and loves sharing his creativity with others.

Outside of school, he loves Groot, Marvel movies, exploring new places, and making people smile. Family movie nights and summer bowling are among his favorite activities. He uses his legs and an adaptive ramp to bowl.

He has participated in adaptive swimming and adaptive biking with his family since he was about five years old. For him, participation matters more than competition.

Looking toward the future, Noah hopes to inspire others to see ability before disability and to never underestimate what someone can contribute. His favorite Longmont Dairy treat is Original Eggnog, with Chocolate Milk a close second. Thanks for your fun eggnog bottle design, Noah. Great job!

Dear Friends,

Every November 11, we remember our veterans and the sacrifices they have made for our safety. I am so proud of two of the young men in my life: my stepson, Angus, who recently finished his time serving in the U.S. Navy, and my son-in-law, Rob, who is actively serving in the Marines as an Osprey pilot.

I'd also like to remember one of my very favorite customers and a veteran, Steve Newton, who passed away earlier this year. He regularly called our office and brightened the day of everyone who spoke with him. He joked about how much he loved "Udder Cola" and even gave us some of his beautiful artwork, which he made with other veterans as a form of art therapy.

Thank you to ALL of the veterans who have served and protected our country and happy Thanksgiving from all of us at Longmont Dairy!

Take Care,

Katie

MOOO RECIPES

This is a perfect Thanksgiving side topped with crispy french-fried onions and baked until golden brown and bubbly. It is easy to make, flavorful, and will please all of your holiday dinner guests! Serves 12-15.

Thanksgiving Green Bean Casserole

1 stick Country Cream butter
5 lb. clean, fresh green beans
1 lb. sliced mushrooms
½ c. all-purpose flour
2 c. chicken stock
1 c. Longmont Dairy Whipping Cream
2 c. French Fried Onions
2 qt. water

Melt butter on medium high heat in a large sauté pan. Sauté mushrooms until golden brown. Add flour and stir until mixture is evenly distributed, creating a mushroom brown roux. Add chicken stock and cream, stirring mixture until evenly distributed. Reduce heat and simmer.

In a separate pot, bring two quarts of water with a tablespoon of salt to a boil. Add green beans and blanch until slightly tender. Strain green beans and immediately place in ice water. Remove when cool and pat dry.

Blend green beans into the mushroom mix. Stir in one cup of the Fried Onions. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Coat casserole dish with cooking spray and pour contents of sauté pan into dish. Top with remaining Fried Onions. Bake at 425° for 20 minutes, or until golden brown.
