We Give Thanks!

Congratulations to Vivi Roetter!

2022 Eggnog Bottle Design Contest Winner

Vivi is from Boulder and a fifth grade student at High Peaks Elementary. Her favorite subject is science and she wants to be a rock climber when she grows up.

She has liked art as long as she can remember, has attended Sunflower Art Studio, and takes a weekly art class. Other interests include bouldering and reading.

With her family, Vivi enjoys traveling to Mexico and Italy. She has a younger brother and a pet Shih Tzu named Mucca (which means cow in Italian).

Chocolate Milk is a Longmont Dairy favorite. She has never entered the Eggnog Bottle Design Contest, though her mother has been encouraging her to for years. Great job, Vivi, and thanks for your radiant reindeer design!

Dear Friends,

I've had a few conversations with longtime customer Steve Newton recently. Steve has been a customer for 22 years and says he just can't live without the best "Utter Cola." He's quite a character! Steve served in the Army from November of 1965 to November of 1968, a year of which was in Vietnam. Steve is a part of Vietnam Veterans of America, Chapter 1071 in Denver. His chapter provides help to local veterans and their families.

Steve reached out with an offer to make a milk bottle display for me. He makes pieces like this as a form of PTSD therapy and a way to connect with others. I'm quite impressed with this beautiful work of art and grateful to be able to connect with a customer in a meaningful way. Thank you, Steve, for using your experience to help others and for serving our country.

Happy Veteran's Day and thank you to all that have served in the Military.

Take Care,

Katie
